1. It is reported that the Slav Communists in Buenos Aires have established a secret court-martial to pass judgment on all anti-Communist Slaves now in Argentina.
2. The formation of this court has become known to the anti-Communist Slaves, who are extremely disturbed. They fear that the decisions of the court may be followed by personal attacks on their most outstanding members in Argentina, or by reprisals against their families who are in Communist-dominated countries.

3. [REDACTED] the identity of the individuals who compose the court is a closely guarded secret, and great precautions have been taken to prevent their being known, even to Communist Party affiliates. The members of the court have been assigned numbers and they identify themselves by these numbers to each other.
